

653 Dicksons Road JILLIBY NSW

3 2 2

This is a part of Wyong history and encompasses 27 acres of bushland with cleared areas around the buildings on the property. Everything has been hand made in the three bedroom home with timber and stone featuring throughout. Stone walls and fireplace, two bathrooms, large dining and lounge room with fire place and a lock up garage plus carports. There is a pottery studio where the pottery was on display and sales were made with electricity and water connected. There is another large shed where they made the pottery and a large wood fired kiln plus several other gas fired kilns. This property is unique and steeped in over 40 years of history. You can restore it to its original beauty or build another home on the property (subject to Council approval). Either way you must come and inspect it.
